COURSES OF STUDY.

THEOLOGICAL INSTRUCTION.

The following resolutions, in reference to Theological Instruction in the schools of the Home Mission Society, were adopted by the Presidents of these schools, at the meeting at Martha's Vineyard, August 19, 1892:

1. That the Course of Study as arranged by the Richmond Theological Seminary for a degree in Divinity, be published in full in each catalogue, and that students for the ministry be strongly advised to pursue that course in Richmond.

2. That, in addition to the above, there be published in each catalogue, and taught in each school for males, a Minister's Course similar to that published by the Richmond Theological Seminary. That such students as cannot take the course in Richmond, because of age or other circumstances, be advised to pursue this, and that this be the maximum of Theological work taught in these schools.

These resolutions have been approved by the Home Mission Board, and hence the Theological Instruction in each of the Home Mission Schools, except in Richmond Theological Seminary, is to be restricted to the following:

MINISTERS' COURSE.

This course is designed only for those who, from lack of literary training, are unable to take a more extended course, and who, at the same time, are unable by reason of age and other insurmountable conditions to secure a thorough literary training. Many ministers engaged in active pastoral work, who feel the need of further training, will find this course specially adapted to their case. It may ordinarily be completed in a year. No person will be allowed to pursue this course in the Richmond Theological Seminary except residents of the State of Virginia. Certificates will be given to such as complete the course in a satisfactory manner. The instruction to be given is to be included under the following heads:
I. Study of the English Bible.

The work done under this head is to be strictly Biblical. No time is to be spent upon speculations about the Bible. The study of Divine truth itself, and the best methods of communicating this truth to the minds and hearts of others, are to occupy the entire attention. The inductive method of instruction is to be pursued, and the special aim of the work is to accomplish the following ends:

(a) To permeate the minds and hearts of the students with the spirit and power of Divine truth.

(b) To give to the students a general but comprehensive knowledge as a whole.

(c) To impart to the students a correct method of studying the Scriptures, and practical and effective methods of conveying Bible truth to the minds and hearts of other persons varying in age, capacity and mental training.

In seeking to accomplish these three ends in the most successful manner, the following order of study and of imparting instruction is to be pursued:

1. The study and application of (a) Bible Stories, (b) Bible Charters, (c) Consecutive Bible Narrative or History.
2. The study of Principles and Methods of giving Bible Instruction. This exercise includes (a) the study of subjects specially selected, (b) parables, (c) miracles, etc.
4. The study and analysis of selected topics and selected books of the Bible.
5. The systematic study of Bible Doctrines as explicitly taught in the Bible itself.

II. Family Organization.

Under this head the teachings of the Bible in reference to the family are to be carefully studied and enforced in a practical way. The following order is pursued:

1. The teachings of the New Testament upon marriage.
2. The Scripture teachings regarding the reciprocal duties and responsibilities of husband and wife.
3. The Scripture teachings in reference to the relation of parents and children.

(a) The father's position in the family and his special responsibilities.
(b) The mother’s position and her responsibilities.
(c) Home surroundings, what they should be, and how to make them such.
(d) The children in the home, and their duties and responsibilities to their parents and to each other.

4. Rights, duties and responsibilities of employers and employees as taught in the Word of God.

III. CHURCH WORK.

In this Department instruction is to be given on everything that pertains to a well organized working church.

Special attention will be given to the peculiar needs of small country churches and mission stations. It is to be accompanied also by such church work upon the part of the students as will fix it firmly in their minds. The following presents the order of study and instruction:

(a) The Elder, Bishop, Presbyter, Minister or Pastor—his office, his qualification, his duties and responsibilities, both private and public.
(b) The Deacons—their office, qualifications and duties.
(c) Deaconesses—their place and work in the church.
(d) Church Members—their relation to the minister or pastor, also to each other, and their special work and responsibilities.
(e) Church discipline.

2. Church helps as a part of church organization.

(a) All helps are to be regarded as subordinate to the church itself.

(b) Societies—Christian Association, Young People’s Union, Christian Endeavor Society, Literary Society, Home and Foreign Mission Society, Mission Circle, Mission Band Temperance Society, etc.

3. The Bible Sunday-school as the training school of the church.

(a) Methods of organizing such a school.
(b) The officers and teachers—their qualifications, duties and responsibilities, and relation of their work to the church.
(c) The Home School and the Pastor’s relation to it.
(d) Mission Schools— their organization and management, and their relation to the church.
(e) Teachers' Meeting—how best conducted.
(f) Methods of instructing and managing Bible classes, intermediate classes and primary classes.

IV. Mission Work.

The training in this Department is to be strictly practical. The principle "to do is to know" is to be carefully applied. While a knowledge of the best methods of doing missionary work is regarded as very important, actual practice in doing the work is regarded as still more important. Without this latter, the former will be of little value, and the training given will be very defective. This practical work, during the school year, is to receive special attention, and will be under the special direction of the teachers. In addition to this practical work, each student will also be required to pursue a systematic course of missionary reading. This course is to include a careful selection of works on the history and progress of missionary effort, and a wide range of biographical sketches of eminent and successful Home and Foreign Missionaries of the Baptist and other denominations.

The foregoing is to be hereafter the maximum Theological Course for each of the Home Mission Schools, except the Richmond Theological Seminary. The President of each school may, however, exercise his discretion in omitting from this course such portions of the work as he may deem necessary in the interest of the class of students who receive instruction.

RICHMOND THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

Students who are prepared to pursue advanced Theological studies can do so under the most favorable conditions at the Richmond Theological Seminary, where thorough instruction is given in the following eight departments of study: namely, Hebrew Language and Interpretation; Greek Interpretation; Biblical Introduction; English Interpretation; Biblical Theology and Ethics; Church History; Homiletics, Pastoral Theology and Church Polity; Elements of Psychology, Moral Philosophy and Course of reading. Any student, with the approval of the President, will be allowed to pursue the studies of any department which he is prepared to enter. No student will, however, be allowed to carry more subjects at one time than can be done with profit to himself and to the other members of his classes.
PLAN OF STUDIES BY YEARS.

The following order of studies is recommended as a natural one, and one which will avoid all conflict in the hours of recitation. An asterisk [*] indicates that the study may be omitted with the consent of the Faculty. The number of hours of recitation each week is added after each study.

COLLEGE DEPARTMENT

LANGUAGE.

Latin.—This department is designed to acquaint the student with some of the best authors in the language, and also to give them the best possible mental discipline by a thorough study of the structure of language. The first two years are given largely to Etymology and syntax, that the student may be well grounded in the principles of the language, thus obtaining the best results from the remainder of the course.

Greek.—This study is optional. The course is arranged to meet the demands of those who wish to pursue a special course in the classics, or who wish a knowledge of the Greek as an aid in their theological study.

MATHEMATICS.

In this department the following branches are taught: Arithmetic, Algebra, Geometry, plain and solid, Trigonometry, and Surveying. In these branches the student is not only taught a knowledge of the subject matter, but the best method of imparting that knowledge to others. Arithmetic for instance, is taken up by topics. The members of the class take notes on the given topics; when they come to recite each member of the class acts the part of a teacher. By this method the student gets the subject more firmly fixed in his mind, becomes independent of the text-book, and is better prepared for the work of a teacher.
SCIENCES.

Physiology.—The instruction in this branch is given by textbooks, supplemented by lectures. For the time allotted to the study, the whole field of Physiology is traversed as thoroughly as possible. It is endeavored to make the facts considered practical by reducing them to daily observation and practice.

Physics.—The instruction in physics comprises two terms' work: Mechanics, Sound, Heat, Optics, Electricity and Magnetism. The aim is to make each subject treated as plain and simple as possible by experimental lectures. For the purpose of experimenting, there is connected with the department a well equipped laboratory of the most modern apparatus. The practical application of the theories can be fully illustrated.

Geology.—Instruction is given both by text-book and lectures. Students are required to study and label all the stones in the vicinity of the college.

Botany.—No study better adapted to develop the perceptual powers of the mind than Botany; no study better adapted to cultivate the ideal of symmetry and of the beautiful. After a few weeks spent in the anatomy of plant tissues, the student begins to analyze plants. He is required to give minute descriptions and drawings of seeds, roots, stems, leaves and flowers. Herbariums are put up, and a large number of plant descriptions are recorded by the student in a blank book prepared for the purpose.

Zoology.—In this study which is taught principally by text-book, a wide field is covered, and original researches are made as far as possible.

NORMAL DEPARTMENT.

Geography.

In addition to the method employed in the Normal Department for training the student how to teach the subject matter of each branch of study, special drill is given in map-drawing through all the grades. This training enables the student to sketch rapidly the outlines of countries simultaneously with his class at the blackboard, giving him facility and power to draw from memory while he recites the different topics connected with a thorough study of both Political and Physical Geography.

This method not only creates interest in the study of Geography and thoroughly familiarizes the student with the branch, but develops the power of observation, discrimination and description. After sufficient drill has been given in drawing, a portion of each term is spent in writing compositions on topics of Geography, requiring the use of reference books. This makes the student familiar with the use of books of reference, and gives him a knowledge of composition and geography.

ENGLISH GRAMMAR.

Our aim is to make the study of English Grammar as practical as possible, and to this end the pupils are drilled, not only in analysis and parsing of sentences, but in sentence-building and letter-writing. Pupils are taught to put the principles of grammar into practice daily by correcting faulty expressions which occur in conversation, in recitation and in composition, stating always the grammatical principle violated.

To insure thoroughness and promote interest, written examinations are required at the end of each month.

PHYSIOLOGY AND HYGIENE.

The importance of giving instruction in these branches cannot be easily over-estimated. It is intended that the student shall acquire such a knowledge of these sciences as will suggest the formation of such habits of living and modes of action as will insure better protection to the health and morals of themselves and those with whom they may have influence.

HISTORY.

The study of History begins in the Normal Department, and is continued throughout the Normal and College Courses. Instruction is given according to the most approved methods. The topical method is combined with a judicious use of the text-books. Many necessary books of reference are found in the College Library. Students are required to recite without questions, and make illustrations from memory by means of maps, diagrams, outlines, etc. The same method is pursued in both College and Normal Departments. Special care is taken to leave the impression of History as a unit.
RHETORIC.

As a science of speaking and writing, Rhetoric is made a specialty. The class-room work consists largely in criticism, analytical and synthetical, a careful construction of sentences, paragraphs, etc., according to the best authors and a rigid scrutiny of each work as to its perspicuity and right use. The critical method for the class-room is followed also in the weekly rhetorical class.

MUSIC.

The expense of instruction upon the organ and piano is one dollar per month for one lesson per week. As the colored people possess great natural talent for music, it has been thought desirable to afford first-class facilities, that they may be able to cultivate this talent, which cannot fail to be of great service as an auxiliary in promoting their elevation, and especially in its attractive and refining influence in connection with the Sabbath-school work and religious worship.

MANUAL TRAINING.

Arrangements are being made so that both young men and young women shall receive instruction in Manual Training along educational lines. There is to be a regular course of study for both sexes as carefully arranged and graded as in the other departments. It is hoped to inaugurate this work in the autumn of 1895. Until this change is made, the industrial department will be carried on as at present.

GENERAL INFORMATION.

LOCATION.

Shaw University is beautifully located in the city of Raleigh, North Carolina, within ten minutes walk of the post-office and capitol. The grounds, upon which have been erected five large brick buildings and several of wood, are among the finest in the city, and include several acres. This institution furnishes by far the largest accommodations of any colored school in North Carolina, and, in the large number of advanced pupils, it is not surpassed by any colored school in the country.

FINANCIAL CONDITION OF THE UNIVERSITY.

The important work of founding this institution has been steadily going forward for the last twenty-nine years, until the property is valued at one hundred and seventy-five thousand dollars. But the success of the past, while it calls for thanksgiving to the Bestower of all good, should not blind the friends of the enterprise to the necessity of continued effort and zeal. The institution now stands in the front rank, compared with the schools established by other denominations for the education of colored people; and should these pages meet the eye of any who feel the importance of the enterprise, and are seeking how they can invest their surplus wealth where it will bless more fully the present and coming generation, we invite them to consider the wants of this institution, not only as it relates to the colored people of our own land, but its destined effect upon African civilization as a Foreign Mission Work.

DEPARTMENTS AND GRADUATION.

In the different departments of the University all the branches are taught, which a thorough course requires. There are nine different departments: College, Industrial, Law, Medical, Missionary Training, Normal, Pharmacy, Scientific and Theological.

Diplomas are given in all the departments of study, with the exception of Theology. The charge for diplomas to students in the College, Normal and Scientific Courses is five dollars. Students who have graduated in the College Department, after devoting three years to Literary studies, will be allowed to receive the degree of A. M., by the payment of five dollars.
SETTLING DAYS.

Matriculation fee, incidentals and tuition in the professional schools are annual charges and must be paid to the Assistant Treasurer upon arrival, before rooms are assigned and tickets of admission to recitation rooms and dining hall are issued. No reduction in the above charges is made to students who enter after the opening of the Academic year. All students in all departments of the University, whose parents or guardians do not reside in the city of Raleigh or immediate vicinity, are required to room and board at the University.

The settling days in the schools of Law, Medicine and Pharmacy are November 2d, November 30th, January 4th, February 1st and February 29th. In these departments there are due on November 2d the matriculation fee, incidentals, tuition, the first month’s board and room-rent. On the other dates named there is due one month’s board and room-rent, with the exception of February 29th, when, in addition to board and room-rent, there are due all charges required of those who are expecting to graduate. In case of failure to graduate the charge for diploma will be returned.

The settling days in all other departments of the University are October 1st, October 28th, November 25th, December 23d, January 27th, February 24th, March 23d, April 20th. There is due on October 1st the incidental fee of $2, together with the charge for one month’s board, room-rent and tuition. On each of the following dates there is due the charges for one month’s board, room-rent and tuition, except on April 20th, when, in addition to the regular monthly charges, there will be due the graduation fee, which will be remitted in case of failure to pass the required examinations.

In the settling of all accounts four weeks are reckoned as a month, and no reduction is made in board, room-rent and tuition for any time less than one week.

The institution does not furnish text-books or stationery. They can be purchased at reasonable prices at the city book stores.

Students in the literary departments should have, on arriving, not less than $12 to $15, so as to meet promptly the charges for the first month and to purchase the necessary text-books and stationery.

Students proposing to enter the schools of Law, Medicine and Pharmacy should have, on arriving, about $45, to pay annual charges, the first month’s board and room-rent, and to provide text-books.
When money is not brought by the student, it should be remitted by parent or guardian to the President in a registered letter, by money order or express order.

SICKNESS.

In case of serious illness parents or guardians will be promptly notified. The fact should not be overlooked that the sick are cared for without any charge by the University Physician. Medical attendance is an important item, but Shaw University makes no charge for it.

GENERAL SUGGESTIONS.

It is requested that parents, in providing an outfit for their daughters, will furnish them with rubber overshoes, a water-proof and an umbrella. It is particularly requested that costly wearing apparel, such as silk and satin dresses, gay and expensive jewelry, should not be provided. Plain worsted goods or calico are all that is necessary. Good behavior and industrious habits of study will be regarded as the best adornments.

It is intended to maintain a high degree of character and scholarship, and only students who are willing to cheerfully comply with reasonable rules and regulations are desired at this University.

RELIGIOUS INSTRUCTION.

Chapel exercises are held daily, before the beginning of recitations. There are regular religious services in the Chapel on Sunday at 11:00 A.M., a Sabbath School at 3:00 P.M., and a general meeting of praise and prayer at 7:30 P.M. There are, during the week, prayer meetings, a meeting of the Y. M. C. A. and of the Literary Fraternities.

All students, whose parents or guardians do not reside in the city or immediate vicinity, are required to room and board in the University.
The school year of the Missionary Course consists of ten months, and is divided into two sessions of five months each. The five months, or winter session, is conducted in the University, and the five months, or summer session, on a mission field. During both the winter and summer sessions the students receive instruction and engage in systematic work.

The training work during the summer session on the mission field is in charge of a Missionary Superintendent. This Superintendent is a member of the teaching staff of the Training Department of the University and is in thorough sympathy and identified with the entire work of the Institution.

REQUIREMENTS FOR ADMISSION.

To gain admission to the Missionary Training Course, clear and unmistakable evidence must be given of a blameless and holy life, stability of character, aptitude in Christian work, and real consecration to missionary service. In addition to these qualifications, the applicant must have completed a course of academic studies equivalent to the Normal Course of the University. Special cases may occur where an exception may be made in regard to this latter requirement. Such exceptions will, however, only be made in cases where the age, experience and practical training of the applicant is a full equivalent for the academic training required.

GENERAL INFORMATION.

The training course is entirely open to any one of four classes of students who possess the qualifications stated under the head "Requirements for Admission." These four classes are as follows:

(a) Consecrated women who desire to prepare themselves to engage exclusively in missionary work among the colored people of the Southern States.

(b) Young women into whose heart God has put a firm determination to engage in missionary work in Africa or some other foreign land.

(c) Christian women who desire to secure a thorough missionary education that they may be fitted for effective Christian work in the churches of which they are members.

(d) To any Christian woman who will pay her expenses for a part or entire session.
Each missionary student who is admitted to the training work on a mission field, during the summer session, will receive for her five months' service one hundred dollars above expenses. This will clothe her for the entire year, and pay her board and other expenses in the University during the winter session. Each student must provide herself with a good reference Bible.

LAW DEPARTMENT.

FACULTY.

CHAS. F. MESERVE, A. M., PRESIDENT.

JOHN S. LEARY, LL. B., DEAN.
Lecturer on Common Law, Evidence, Equity and Pleading.

E. A. JOHNSON, LL. B.,
Instructor in Legal Forms, Stenography and Type-writing.

At the annual meeting of the Trustees of Shaw University, held in the City of New York, June 29, 1888, it was voted to found a Law Department connected with Shaw University.

After the above action of the Trustees, with the sanction of a special committee, composed of Col. C. H. Banes, W. W. Keen, M. D., and James Butterworth, Esq., of Philadelphia, Hon. John S. Leary, of Charlotte, N. C., was appointed as instructor in the Law Department.

Being now in full operation, the Trustees and Faculty spare no means to make this department of study of great and practical advantage.

Terms are as follows:

Matriculation fee, paid annually.......................... $ 5 00
Incidentals, paid annually....................................... 5 00
Graduation fee.................................................. 10 00
Room-rent, without board, lights and fuel, per month........ 3 50
Five months’ tuition............................................. 60 00
Board, lights, fuel and room-rent per month............... 8 50

Students can reduce the above charges two dollars per month by labor.

All students from abroad must room upon the University grounds.

To worthy students who need assistance a scholarship of $50 per year will be granted, to be credited on their tuition.

Applicants will not be received under eighteen years of age.

The regular course will extend over a period of three years.
It is the purpose of the Trustees, President and Instructors of Shaw University to make the Law Department in the highest degree efficient, so that its graduates may compare favorably with those of any other University.

RULES.

Law students will be governed by the same rules as the other students of the University, with the single exception that the Dean has authority to excuse students to attend sessions of Court. Students who reside in the city with their parents or guardians will be under the same rules as those who room and board on the grounds.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENTS.

While much preliminary mental discipline is indispensable to enable the student to master the principles of law, any person not under eighteen years of age and of good moral character, may be admitted to the classes and exercises of the Department, the graduation of each depending upon the regularity of his attendance, the diligence of his application, his proficiency in the studies pursued, and his success in passing the final examination, and in presenting and delivering a legal dissertation to the Faculty at the close of the course.

DESIGN.

The design of this department is to give a complete course of education to students desiring to enter upon the practice of law, and, while it is not attempted to familiarize the student with all the details of local practice, the exercises of the Department are directed to the end of a complete instruction in legal and collateral branches of study, including practice in Moot Courts, the drawing of papers and pleadings, and the argument of cases for successful effort at the bar.

The utility of the Moot Court system of drilling young law students in the meshes of the practice at the bar has been well demonstrated and is generally accepted. Knowledge is power, it is true, but not so unless the possessor thereof can successfully use it. The lawyer who succeeds will necessarily be required to not only possess legal knowledge, but to use it. The ability to represent a client's case before a jury comes by practice. The law student can get that practice in no way better than through the Moot Court trials.
COURSE OF STUDY.

The course of study embraces the subject of International and Constitutional Law, the various branches of the Common Law, Equity and Admiralty.

The text-books used will be mainly the following:

First Year—Walker's Introduction to American Law; Blackstone's Commentaries; Kent's Commentaries and Munson's Complete Phonographer and Type-writing.

Second Year—Greenleaf on Evidence; Williams on Real Property; Smith on Contracts; Stephens on Pleadings (Tyler's edition); Adams on Equity; Legal Forms and Practice as to Deeds, Mortgages, Notes and Bills.

Third Year—Cooley on Torts; Williams on Executors; Code of Civil Procedure; Constitution of the United States; Constitution of North Carolina; Legal Forms as to Contracts, and all Instruments of Pleadings.

RECITATIONS.

The students are required to furnish their own text-books, study and make regular recitations from the author's indicated.

The recitations and other exercises will be held with reference to the needs and opportunities of those who may be engaged during the business hours of the day in other pursuits.

Students will be expected to take lessons daily in short-hand and type-writing, unless excused by the Faculty, during the first year, in which time it is supposed that they will have sufficiently mastered the subject as to need only practice to become experts. Legal forms will be worked off on the type-writers, which are provided for the use of the students in the Law Department.

GRADUATION AND DEGREES.

All students who pursue the course of study prescribed in this Department, and comply with the regulations of the University otherwise, upon passing a satisfactory examination, will receive the degree of Bachelor of Laws.

No degree can be conferred, however, until all charges due the University are paid.

LOCATION AND ADVANTAGES.

The Law Department is now in successful operation. It is no longer an experiment, but is as much a fixed fact as any other department of the Institution. Its organization was opportune, and the result, thus far obtained in practical utility, is as highly satisfactory as could have been reasonably expected by its most ardent friends and supporters. The opportunity now afforded to deserving young men to obtain a competent knowledge of the intricate science of law at Shaw University, in the outlay of means and time required, is not surpassed by any institution of learning in the country. The cost for board, matriculation, incidentals, books and graduation fee being only two hundred and fifteen dollars for the whole course, covering a period of three years' time.

The efficacy of this department is best attested by the results obtained, in the ability of the graduates to pass the examinations required by the statutory provisions of the State, for all persons who desire to enter upon the practice of law within their respective limits. In North Carolina any and every applicant who obtains license to practice law from the Supreme Court of the State must be thoroughly grounded in the fundamental principles of the common law. It is a fact well known by experience and observation, and it is here said, as a compliment to the court, that a most rigid scrutiny is observed and none but the qualified and worthy are allowed to enter the inner temple.

Young men will find it greatly to their advantage to attend the law school of Shaw University. Raleigh has a very mild climate, the average temperature being about fifty-five degrees, and while the temperature is mild there is a freshness and buoyancy in the atmosphere especially conducive to intellectual work—in short, Raleigh is a healthy locality, and Shaw University is located on, and occupies one of the most central as well as picturesque and well drained blocks in the city. The buildings and dormitories are tall brick structures, comfortably heated and aired.

Raleigh is the capital of the State, and hence there is a very large State library with free access to students and others, also the Supreme Court library with law reports from the various States. The Supreme Court is in session nine months in the year and students have a chance to listen to the arguments of the legal talent in this and other States. The Federal Court meets twice a year, the Railroad Commission holds its sessions here and also the Legislature and the various political conventions. There is a general literary atmosphere pervading the city of Raleigh hardly so prominent in any other city in the State.
COURSE OF STUDY.

The course of study embraces the subject of International and Constitutional Law, the various branches of the Common Law, Equity and Admiralty.

The text-books used will be mainly the following:

First Year—Walker's Introduction to American Law; Blackstone's Commentaries; Kent's Commentaries and Munson's Complete Phonographer and Type-writing.

Second Year—Greenleaf on Evidence; Williams on Real Property; Smith on Contracts; Stephens on Pleadings (Tyler's edition); Adams on Equity; Legal Forms and Practice as to Deeds, Mortgages, Notes and Bills.

Third Year—Cooley on Torts; Williams on Executors; Code of Civil Procedure; Constitution of the United States; Constitution of North Carolina; Legal Forms as to Contracts, and all Instruments of Pleadings.

RECITATIONS.

The students are required to furnish their own text-books, study and make regular recitations from the author's indicated.

The recitations and other exercises will be held with reference to the needs and opportunities of those who may be engaged during the business hours of the day in other pursuits.

Students will be expected to take lessons daily in short-hand and type-writing, unless excused by the Faculty, during the first year, in which time it is supposed that they will have sufficiently mastered the subject as to need only practice to become experts. Legal forms will be worked off on the type-writers, which are provided for the use of the students in the Law Department.

GRADUATION AND DEGREES.

All students who pursue the course of study prescribed in this Department, and comply with the regulations of the University otherwise, upon passing a satisfactory examination, will receive the degree of Bachelor of Laws.

No degree can be conferred, however, until all charges due the University are paid.

LOCATION AND ADVANTAGES.

The Law Department is now in successful operation. It is no longer an experiment, but is as much a fixed fact as any other department of the Institution. Its organization was opportune, and the result, thus far obtained in practical utility, is as highly satisfactory as could have been reasonably expected by its most ardent friends and supporters. The opportunity now afforded to deserving young men to obtain a competent knowledge of the intricate science of law at Shaw University, in the outlay of means and time required, is not surpassed by any institution of learning in the country. The cost for board, matriculation, incidentals, books and graduation fee being only two hundred and fifteen dollars for the whole course, covering a period of three years' time.

There is a general literary atmosphere pervading the city of Raleigh hardly so prominent in any other city in the State.
An additional professor in the person of Mr. E. A. Johnson was added to the Faculty of the Law Department in 1892. Mr. Johnson has charge of the instruction of the students in the drawing of papers technically called "Pleadings," a very difficult and important part of the science. He also instructs in short-hand and typewriting. The addition of short-hand and type-writing to the course of study in the department is heartily appreciated by the students, every one of whom seems eager to master these branches. Why? Because the young lawyer who can write short-hand or operate the type-writer can find many openings where those must wait for clients who have no other means of sustenance except their legal knowledge. Many legal firms will employ a young lawyer who writes short-hand as an office assistant in preference to one who does not. There is a general demand for legal talent combined with the ability to write short-hand and operate the type-writer. No law student who is master of these branches need fail except for a lack of energy and industry. He possesses two trades that are in constant demand at good pay, and many older lawyers would be glad to welcome such young law graduates into their office as partners.
